Move Over, Uber

These three new, free car-sharing mobile apps are here to make your life easier (again)

SHIP WITH LUDACRIS (MAYBE)

Roadie's

neighbor-to-neighbor shipping network lets your package become a passenger to another driver who's headed in that direction. Send everything from a gift to a pet. It's even catching on with celebrities: Ludacris has partnered with the app. Roadie.com

RENT YOUR CAR FOR PERKS

Never pay for airport parking again — as long as you're OK with lending your car for someone's Ferris Bueller's Day Off-style joy ride while you travel. FlightCar also provides a mileage payout and returns cars squeaky clean, even if no one rents it. Flightcar.com

LET YOUR SMALL CAR TAKE A LOAD OFF

Compact-car owners, rejoice: Moving cumbersome couches and boxes has become easier thanks to Pickup. Get a local good-guy with a truck to move large items for you at the press of a button. Bonus points if they stick around to help you unpack. Thepickupnetwork.com —ELVIA LIMÓN
